1.0 Interpretation

1.1 In these terms: "KRS" means KRS Group of Companies; "Client" means the legal entity accepting KRS' quotation for the supply of Equipment or Services or whose order for Equipment or Services is accepted by KRS the party otherwise commissioning the Services in each case as named on KRS Groups' invoice; "Equipment" shall mean all and each item of equipment referred to in this Agreement to be supplied by KRS and all additions, alterations and replacements to that Equipment; "Dry Hire" shall mean the hire of Equipment without the supply of operational personnel; "Hire Charge" means KRS Group's charges for provision of Equipment and/or Services; "Services" shall mean the installation, operation and removal of the Equipment and/or other services as described in this Agreement; and "writing" shall include electronic mail.

2.0 Provision of Services or Equipment

2.1 KRS shall provide and Client shall accept the Equipment and engage the Services of KRS at the location(s) ("Venue") as described in KRS Groups hire agreement or order acceptance or, if none, KRS Groups most recent quotation for the event ("Agreement") subject to these terms, which contain the entire agreement between KRS and the Client and shall apply to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions and shall not be varied except as confirmed in writing by KRS GROUP.

2.2 Client acknowledges that Equipment was selected by Client as suitable for its purpose and Client has not been induced to enter into this Agreement by any prior representation (whether innocently or negligently made) except as specifically contained in this Agreement.

2.3 Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by KRS GROUP, all Equipment supplied by KRS is supplied on hire in accordance with these terms and no ownership interest in the Equipment shall pass to Client or any third party.

2.4 KRS will use reasonable efforts to ensure Equipment is in good working order on delivery and of satisfactory quality and will provide the Services using reasonable care and skill and in accordance with this Agreement.

3.0 Order Acceptance and Cancellation

3.1 No order or booking submitted by the Client shall be deemed accepted unless and until KRS has issued a Hire Agreement or order acceptance signed on behalf of KRS by some other act of acceptance on the part of KRS unless KRS in its discretion waives any such requirement. KRS may stipulate payment of an initial deposit(s) as a condition of acceptance or performance.

3.2 Client shall be responsible for ensuring the accuracy of any order but KRS reserves the right to make changes in the manner of performance of the Services to comply with health and safety and other applicable legal requirements.

3.3 Following acceptance by KRS GROUP, Client may not cancel or terminate this Agreement except with KRS Groups written consent and then only on terms that Client indemnifies KRS in full against all loss (including, without limitation, KRS Groups loss of profit and reimbursement of all costs) incurred prior to or as a result of cancellation or termination.

3.4 On written consent of KRS to accept the cancellation of this Agreement KRS may, at its discretion offer the following scale of discounts. 31 days + prior to event - 100% Reduction 30-14 days prior to event - 50% Reduction 14-8 days prior to event - 25% Reduction Less than 7 days prior - No Reduction. Any reduction offered will be in the form of a 'good-will' credit. Reductions offered will be exclusive of any incurred costs and other liabilities to which KRS may be exposed. This includes, but is not limited to, loss of profit. (see clause 3.3)

4.0 Hire Charges

4.1 KRS Groups charges for provision of Equipment and/or Services shall be as stated in the Agreement. Any extra Equipment or Services later required will be chargeable in addition. Client shall be liable for continuing Hire Charges at the same rate as provided in this Agreement: if Equipment is lost stolen damaged or destroyed, until its replacement (in such case any continuing Hire Charges not to exceed a further 40 weeks rental); and, in the case of a Dry Hire or where Client arranges transit, if Equipment is returned late, until date of its actual return to KRS GROUP.

4.2 Client shall pay Hire Charge (and any VAT), notwithstanding that performance may not have taken place, to be received by KRS in cleared funds on or before the date(s) specified for payment or, if none, on or before the earlier of (i) 3 working days prior to date of supply of the Equipment or Services and (ii) 30 days from date of KRS Groups invoice. It is a condition that each payment due under this Agreement is paid on time without any deduction, set-off or counterclaim. Any discounts quoted or agreed may be forfeited at KRS Groups discretion if payment is received after the due date.

4.3 If the Client fails to pay any sum on the due date then, without limiting any other right or remedy, KRS may: cancel or suspend provision of Services and Equipment to the Client under this or any other agreement between the parties; apply any payment made by Client (notwithstanding any express instruction by Client) towards the discharge of any sums due to KRS under this or any other agreement between the parties; and/or charge Client interest (both before and after judgment) on the amount unpaid at the rate specified by the Late Payments Of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 per month calculated on a daily basis until payment in full together with all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by KRS GROUP OF COMPANIES (including legal fees) in recovering overdue amounts.

4.4 KRS may, at any time before performance, increase the Hire Charge to reflect any matter apparent on subsequent site survey, any increase in cost due to any factor beyond the control of KRS change or delay caused by the Client. KRS will provide timely notice to Client of any such increase. To the extent this Agreement has not been performed (but not otherwise), if Client following consultation with KRS does not accept the increase and KRS does not waive it, Client may cancel this Agreement by written notice given within 5 working days of notice of increase (but not less than 3 working days prior to commencement of Equipment hire or Services) provided that Client indemnifies KRS in full against all costs, charges and expenses incurred by KRS prior to or as a result of cancellation.

5.0 Risk and Insurance

5.1 The Equipment shall be at the risk of the Client from the time of delivery at the Venue or, if earlier, delivery to Client's carrier, until its return to KRS Groups premises or, if earlier, possession is taken by KRS Groupscarrier.

5.2 Client shall at its own expense insure Equipment with an insurance company of repute (naming KRS as a loss payee): against all loss or damage (whether or not the Client's or KRS Groups fault) in an amount equal to its replacement cost new; and against liability for any continuing Hire Charges under Clause 4.1 until earlier of: return of Equipment to KRS in good working order and condition (fair wear and tear excepted) or (if not capable of economic repair) its replacement with equivalent new equipment; or receipt by KRS of payment in full of its replacement cost new and all other sums due hereunder.

5.3 Client hereby irrevocably authorises KRS in name and on behalf of Client to make any claims under the insurance in respect of loss of or damage to Equipment; to settle or compromise such claims; and to receive and give good discharge to insurers for any moneys payable. Client shall not do or allow to be done any act or thing whereby insurance of Equipment may be invalidated.

5.4 If Equipment is lost or damaged, Client shall notify KRS forthwith, assist in making appropriate claims under such insurance and not without KRS Groups consent settle or compromise any claim.

5.5 Client will on request at any time produce to KRS the insurance policy and receipt for current premium. If Client fails to keep Equipment insured to KRS Groups satisfaction or to produce policy or receipt or if KRS so agrees in writing, KRS may at its insurers discretion insure Equipment, in consideration of which Client will pay KRS further sum equal to 12% of KRS Groups charges (before any discount) for relevant Equipment or Services.

5.6 KRS accepts no responsibility for loss or damage to any equipment or materials of the Client or any third party, which KRS may agree to store or transport, and any such equipment or materials shall at all times be at the Client's risk.

6.0 Health and Safety

6.1 Client shall take all reasonable steps to safeguard the health, safety and welfare of KRS Groups personnel while at the Venue, to safeguard the Equipment from theft, loss or damage and to give KRS adequate notice of any unusual risks. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Client acknowledges that KRS shall not be obliged to continue supply of Equipment or Services (and may take down all or any Equipment previously installed) where, in KRS Groups reasonable opinion, the installation poses a material risk to health and safety or to the Equipment;

6.2 Where a support structure is supplied by the Client, Client shall ensure that the surface, on which the Equipment and structure will be installed, will be stable under load and that the structure will be fit for the purpose (taking account of prevailing wind speeds) and will comply with all health and safety and other relevant regulations. Client shall provide KRS on request with copies of certificates of compliance and structural engineering calculations verifying adequacy of Client's structure. Equipment dimensions and weights and representational drawings of structures are available on request from KRS but are approximate and representational only and do not obviate the need for the Client to obtain appropriate professional advice.

7.0 Client's Undertakings Client undertakes to KRS that client shall:

7.1 grant or procure access for KRS to and from the Venue at such times as KRS may reasonably require to discharge its obligations;

7.2 where applicable, provide free of charge within a reasonable distance of the operating position of the Equipment at the Venue: a video feed of the relevant format; an uninterrupted power supply terminated in an appropriate connection; and such other facilities as KRS may reasonably require.

7.3 where KRS Groups Services are dependent on provision of equipment or services by Client or its contractor, ensure that all such equipment and services are provided on time when required; the equipment is of adequate quality and specification and in good working order; and the services are provided by persons of adequate competence and experience using reasonable care and skill;

7.4 obtain all necessary licences and consents relating to the Venue and the communication or use by KRS of live or pre-recorded material;

7.5 if transit of Equipment is arranged by Client, arrange any necessary customs clearances, comply with all applicable import/export regulations and pay all related duties;

7.6 (except in case of a Dry Hire) not permit the Equipment to be operated other than by KRS personnel nor open the outer case or otherwise interfere with the Equipment

7.7 in event of Equipment breakdown or malfunction, not attempt or arrange any repair without KRS Groups prior authorisation;

7.8 not to sell, sub-let or otherwise dispose of or part with Equipment or any interest therein or do or permit to be done any act or thing which may prejudice or jeopardise KRS Groups rights in the Equipment but to keep

Equipment in its or KRS Groups possession and control free from lien, charge or encumbrance so that Equipment shall at all times remain property of KRS its legal owner;

7.9 to permit or procure for KRS its agents access to any premises to inspect or remove Equipment;

7.10 to notify KRS in writing of any change in Client's contact details and forthwith upon request to inform KRS of the location of Equipment;

7.11 (notwithstanding termination of this Agreement) indemnify KRS and keep KRS fully and effectively indemnified against all liabilities whatsoever arising out of the operation and use of Equipment and any breach by Client of this Agreement (including without limitation loss, damage or injury caused by any negligent act or omission or wilful misconduct of the Client, its employees, agents or sub-contractors or any claim that any such use or communication of any material infringes any patent, copyright, trade mark, registered design, design right or other intellectual property right of any third party) and against all costs, claims, demands, expenses and liabilities incurred by KRS in connection therewith provided such indemnity shall not extend to liability for KRS Groups negligence.

8.0 Additional Client Undertakings (Dry Hire Only) Client undertakes during the continuance of this Agreement and until return of Equipment to KRS GROUP:

8.1 to check Equipment before taking into use, to notify KRS forthwith of any repair or maintenance required to Equipment and not to permit such repair or maintenance other than by KRS with its authority;

8.2 to ensure Equipment is only used in a proper manner without risk to health and safety and not contrary to any law or for any purpose for which Equipment is not designed or reasonably suited; and not to make any modification to Equipment, open the outer case (unless required in normal use) or remove any notices or serial numbers on the Equipment

9.0 Exclusion and Limitation Of Liability

9.1 Client acknowledges that electronic equipment may suffer breakdown or malfunction from time to time without fault and that consequences to Client of breach of this Agreement by KRS may be disproportionate to KRS Groups Hire Charges. Therefore, Client agrees that KRS Groups entire liability to the Client in respect of this Agreement and any breach or negligent act or omission (including liability for acts or omissions of KRS Groups employees, agents and sub-contractors) shall be limited as follows:

9.1.1 except as provided in these terms, all conditions, warranties and representations concerning the Services and Equipment, their state, quality, description, fitness for purpose or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law;

9.1.2 KRS Groups liability in respect of each event or series of connected events shall not exceed the total Hire Charges received by KRS except that in the case of recorded material, KRS Groups liability shall be limited to the cost of replacing blank media only and in the case of loss of or damage to physical property caused by KRS Groups negligence, KRS Groups liability shall be limited to £1,000,000;

9.1.3 KRS will not be liable for any loss, damage or expense caused by any interruption or loss of use of Equipment, increased cost of working, delay, loss of profit or goodwill, special, consequential or indirect damage however caused, even if reasonably foreseeable or KRS was advised of the risk of its occurrence;

9.1.4 Client shall give KRS reasonable details of any claim in writing without delay and no later than 90 days of occurrence of the matter giving rise to the claim;

9.1.5 all Equipment agreed to be sold by KRS is sold "as is" and no warranty is given as to performance, functionality, fitness for purpose or that it is of satisfactory quality, unless otherwise agreed by KRS in writing.

9.1.6 nothing in these terms shall limit or exclude KRS Groups liability in respect of death or personal injury resulting from KRS Groups negligence.

9.2 If so requested by Client, KRS may consider accepting higher limits of liability subject to payment by Client of an additional charge.

9.3 KRS shall not be liable to the Client by reason of any delay or failure in performing KRS Groups obligations due to any cause beyond KRS Groups reasonable control including, without limitation, fire, flood, material adverse weather conditions (when KRS shall be entitled not to install or, if installed, may take down all or any of the Equipment), interruption of power supply, war, act of terrorism or civil disturbance, industrial action or trade dispute or blockade, legal or governmental restriction or embargo ("Force Majeure"). In the event of Force Majeure, if the Equipment has been installed at the Venue, Client shall be liable to pay the Hire Charge in full but otherwise the provisions of clause 3.3 shall apply.

10.0 Termination

10.1 This Agreement shall forthwith terminate without notice if Client (being an individual) dies or is subject to an interim order (within meaning of Insolvency Act 1986) or the presentation of a bankruptcy petition; or enters into any arrangement or composition with creditors; or (being a limited company) enters into compulsory or voluntary liquidation (not being for the purpose of reconstruction or amalgamation on terms previously approved by KRS in writing); or has a receiver appointed or a petition presented for an administration order; or has any distress, execution or other legal process made in respect of Client's property; or if anything analogous to the foregoing under the laws of any jurisdiction occurs in relation to the Client.

10.2 KRS may terminate this Agreement forthwith by notice without liability to Client if: Client fails to pay in full any sum owing to KRS any affiliated company of KRS on its due date for payment; Client commits a breach of any other provision of this or any other agreement with KRS an affiliated company of KRS and (if a breach capable of being remedied) fails to remedy such breach within 7 days after notice requiring the same; or performance by KRS is prevented by Force Majeure; or KRS Client is unable to obtain insurance for Equipment and KRS Groups personnel on terms (including insurance premium) to KRS Groups satisfaction.

10.3 Upon termination, all sums due under this Agreement shall become immediately payable by the Client and, in the case of a Dry Hire, Client shall no longer be in possession of Equipment with KRS Groups consent and (without prejudice to Client's obligations and other rights and remedies of KRS GROUP) Client shall at Client's expense return Equipment to KRS in good working condition (fair wear and tear excepted) and in default KRS may forthwith without notice repossess Equipment and all costs and expenses (including without limitation, any legal costs and expenses) incurred by KRS in locating, repossessing or restoring Equipment shall be payable by the Client.

10.4 Termination or cancellation shall not limit any other right or remedy of either party against the other under these terms or at law and all sums then owing to KRS by Client shall become immediately due and payable.

11.0 Confidentiality

11.1 Each party shall treat as it does its own confidential information all information obtained from the other pursuant to this Agreement which is marked "confidential" or the equivalent or has the necessary quality of confidence about it.

12.0 General

12.1 If the Client is more than one person, they shall be liable both individually and together.

12.2 The Contracts (Right of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply this Agreement and no person other than KRS and Client shall have any rights under or to enforce these terms.

12.3 Neither party shall assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement except that KRS may sub-contract all or any of its obligations to a competent third party.

12.4 Any typographical or clerical error or omission in documents issued by KRS may be corrected without liability on part of KRS GROUP.

12.5 Any notice under these terms shall be in writing and may be served by hand, pre-paid first class post or airmail, electronic mail or facsimile to its address or facsimile number set out in this Agreement or such other address as is notified for the purpose. A confirming copy of any notice served by electronic mail or facsimile shall be sent by post within 24 hours of transmission.

12.6 Delay shall not prevent KRS enforcing any provision of this Agreement. Any waiver of a breach of this Agreement shall not be operate as a waiver of a later breach of the same or any other provision.

12.7 If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected.

12.8 Headings in this Agreement are included for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation

12.9 This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with English law. The parties agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
